

What does foreign language learning me to me?

Creative Students Wanted!

The Professional Language Association of Nevada (PLAN) would like to know how language learning impacts your students. PLAN is inviting all foreign language students to participate by using their imagination and creativity to design larger than life playing cards. These cards will be on display at this year's SWCOLT conference held April 4-6 in Henderson, Nevada.

Basics: Students must use color, creativity, images and/or words to answer the question: What does foreign language learning me to me? The artwork must be displayed in the format of a playing card. All submissions must be sent to plannvinformation@gmail.com by March 1, 2013. Submissions should be submitted as a .jpg or as a .pdf. Please include student name, grade/age, school, city, and language teacher name and email with the submission.

Bonuses:

The following places will be recognized as follows:

1st place $100

2nd place $75

3rd place $50

The winning cards will be displayed on the PLAN website.
